

THE WAR CRY

OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND

International Headquarters: 201 Queen Victoria St., London, E.C.

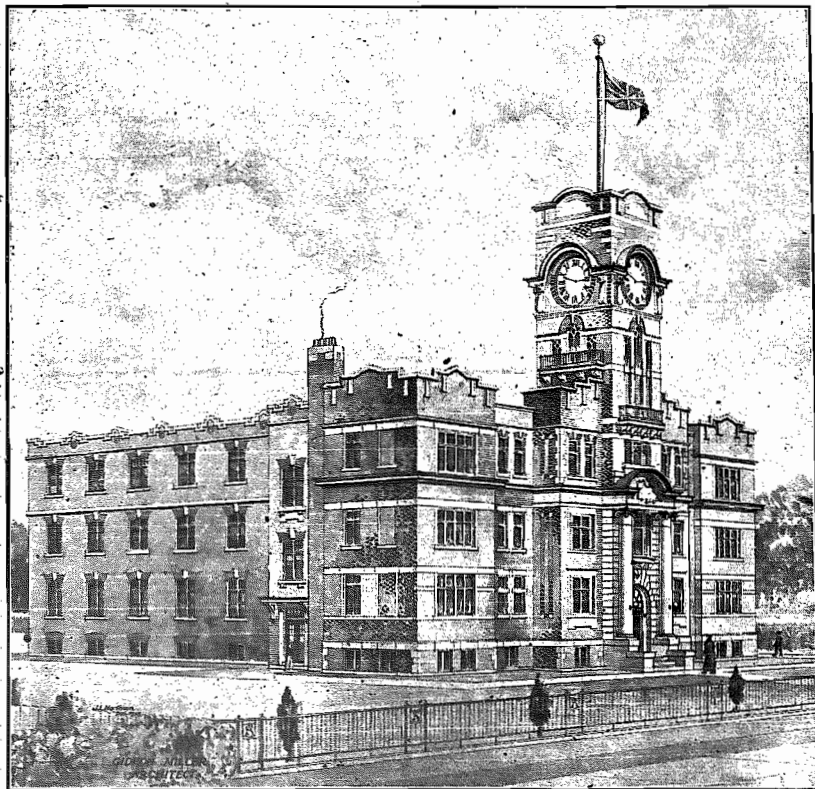

Canada East Headquarters: James and Albert Streets, Toronto, Ont.

33rd Year. No. 4. W. Bramwell Booth, General.

TORONTO, OCTOBER 23, 1915

W. J. Richards, Commissioner.

Price Two Cents

The General Booth Memorial Building

THE ABOVE DRAWING DEPICTS THE NEW TRAINING COLLEGE ABOUT TO BE ERECTED AT DAVISVILLE (TORONTO) IN COMMEMORATION OF THE LIFE AND LABOURS OF GENERAL WILLIAM BOOTH, FOUNDER OF THE SALVATION ARMY

By some people the war is spoken of as evidence against religion in a Supreme Being. Let me hear The General's answer."

"This war," he said, "is nothing like to devastating in its effects as the drink traffic, prostitution, or commercial oppression. Wouldn't you say such a war has been waged in every hundred years, horrible as it is, if by so doing you could get rid of the drink traffic, prostitution, or commercial oppression, or the destruction of bodies and souls, destruction of lands and houses—wrought by drink, prostitution, and sweating?"

Inconsequent Reasoning

"People who accepted without a murmur the atrocious suffering caused by these enemies of the human race suddenly wake up now and ask, 'How can you believe in a God with Christians killing Christians and Europe deluged with blood?' 'What nonsense they talk!' This war is nothing—nothing compared with the murderous destruction of sin. God does not work like an autoer in the moral sphere. God is omnipotent; but omnipotence cannot make five of two and two of one. God is not a God who makes a lie a truth. Why does God permit this war? Why does He permit sin? God is responsible for this war and life is not responsible for war. Man is responsible. And war is here, spreading anguish, death, suffering, and misery, and its incalculable, from the very cause which allows sin to work a havoc among the human race."

Men Have Forgotten God

"Neglect of God is the cause. At the time this war is passing event which all men who truly believe in God may, if they honestly and fearlessly face the nations to realize man's need of Christ. . . . Men of all nations, our own as well as others, recognize God. They are materialists. They don't believe in the Divine. They are after prosperity, and their god is Mammon. They say that but a return to God."

"Men say that the war will be changed, and when you press them you find they are speaking of political change—Socialism and the like. But there is no change in the North of Scotland. No blood old rocks. No political changes can bring better the millennium. No internationalizing of nations prevent strikes and wars. What you

THE WEEK'S BEST STORY

SELECTED FROM THE ARMY'S PRESS

KEEPING HIS PROMISE

AND THE EFFECT IT HAD ON THE REGIMENT

"HAVE you heard? Who would have thought! He is going on military service!"

The news went round the Corps, and the night a hundred pair of eyes were constantly watching the object who had been and still was a prominent figure amongst the men of the Depot Band. The master, and had worked his way up from the Juniors, and as a consequence had entered the Band. The night the news was being relayed it culled he rose to lead the Band in the accompanying to the congregational singing.

The Bandmen that were still at the Depot were agreed that the Deputy Bandmaster ought to be left there without a little social gathering, so a tea was arranged, and a meeting followed. What was

"The War Behind The War"

INTERVIEW WITH THE GENERAL
(From the London "Daily Chronicle")

The moral, social, and religious aspects of the war were made the subject of an interview with The General conducted by Mr. Harold Begbie, and such a report in the "Daily Chronicle." In the course of conversation, which turned in places upon the international character of The Salvation Army and its work in the countries at war, Mr. Begbie's article the telling extracts which appear on this page are made.

A Persistent Question

In what new form will the British Empire emerge from the war? "I had been immensely impressed," said the General, "by all the reports which reach me from foreign countries concerning this matter. I have annotated ourselves, how we shall reorganize ourselves. What a chance for the Church! Just think of the moment that our influence might be in the world if the whole British Empire was organized on a new basis. God is responsible for it so organized? Don't we profess ourselves to be a Christian nation? Have we announced ourselves as a nation of atheists? Have we made a national renunciation of God?"

"But who can say that we are in heart and mind and soul a nation of Christians? Look at the drink traffic; look at prostitution; look at our social commercialism! Consider the change if ever man really believed in God, really felt himself an immortal spirit, really desired to live for others, as Christ bids him."

"Why, no revolution could compare with such a revolution. It would bring heaven to earth, and then we would bring heaven to earth, we shall always have hell on earth. Litter and hatred, jealousy and anger, ranciness and oppressions, greed and vice and sin. Oh, what an opportunity! But there is no change in the North of Scotland. No blood old rocks. No political changes can bring better the millennium. No internationalizing of nations prevent strikes and wars. What you

"Why, no revolution could compare with such a revolution. It would bring heaven to earth, and then we would bring heaven to earth, we shall always have hell on earth. Litter and hatred, jealousy and anger, ranciness and oppressions, greed and vice and sin. Oh, what an opportunity! But there is no change in the North of Scotland. No blood old rocks. No political changes can bring better the millennium. No internationalizing of nations prevent strikes and wars. What you

"Why, no revolution could compare with such a revolution. It would bring heaven to earth, and then we would bring heaven to earth, we shall always have hell on earth. Litter and hatred, jealousy and anger, ranciness and oppressions, greed and vice and sin. Oh, what an opportunity! But there is no change in the North of Scotland. No blood old rocks. No political changes can bring better the millennium. No internationalizing of nations prevent strikes and wars. What you

"Why, no revolution could compare with such a revolution. It would bring heaven to earth, and then we would bring heaven to earth, we shall always have hell on earth. Litter and hatred, jealousy and anger, ranciness and oppressions, greed and vice and sin. Oh, what an opportunity! But there is no change in the North of Scotland. No blood old rocks. No political changes can bring better the millennium. No internationalizing of nations prevent strikes and wars. What you

The Sergeant's Warning

Mr. Begbie relates a striking incident from France to show how the inner mind of the British soldier is affected by his nearness to death. Two soldiers sang recently at an entertainment given in one of the huts. They were rather exhausted in their efforts at drink traffic, or prostitution, or commercial oppression." (See article above.) "Perhaps not many of us would have been of service to you," said General Booth says as to the relative evil of the war compared with the evils of the drink traffic, or prostitution, or commercial oppression. "I have said it, and we have given it due consideration, the majority of us would conclude that it is quite within the margin of error to say that more of us would have preferred songs which would have given us something to think about on our way up to the front."

To the Salvationist, declares Mr. Begbie, with directness and truth, the war is a terrible thing. It is death, and in the midst of suffering and pain, is simply unthinkable. "The people know," The General exclaimed, "how eager the soldier is to talk about serious things? Our officers out there send home the most interesting stories of the soldier, showing how deeply he feels, how seriously he takes this war, and how faithfully he entrusts his soul to the mercy of God. Such men as these—do they want comic songs before they go into the trenches?"

A National Shame

"Don't people realize that the British Army is largely made up of men who have enlisted for the highest motives? Would Cromwell have fought better if he had sung comic songs to him? Isn't this spirit among us proof positive that we really don't know what religion is, that we have given religion up? Comic songs!—does any national

The first night at camp amongst the Avyrie Regiment he will not forget. It was easy for him to forget and pray. That was not any particular cross.

Then regarding his feet he remembered the guernsey. It must now come into view. The khaki clothing must be removed. It was a struggle, but had not the Captain said he would pray for him, and had not he given the Captain a promise? The battle was short but it was a struggle, but had not the Captain said he would pray for him, and had not he given the Captain a promise? The battle was short but it was a struggle, but had not the Captain said he would pray for him, and had not he given the Captain a promise?

What followed we leave the reader to guess, but the victory was won. The Deputy Bandmaster had gained the respect of the men—the first step towards capturing them. The Deputy Bandmaster had gained the respect of the men—the first step towards capturing them. The Deputy Bandmaster had gained the respect of the men—the first step towards capturing them.

man suppose that comic songs are better for courage than a palm of a hymn? Are not many of these songs a national disgrace for us? Don't they make us feel that in our national life for a grander and a greater spirit? How shall we win the war if we go into it with comic song in our souls?"

A New Vision of Old Evils
General Booth, of The Salvation Army, true son of his father in some ways, though so essentially different from him in the matter of religion, that needed to be said just at this juncture, and that many of us perhaps needed to be reminded of. Referring to those people who claim that the horrors of the present war have destroyed their faith in a Supreme Being, he is quoted as follows:—

"This war is nothing like to devastating in its effects at the drink traffic, or prostitution, or commercial oppression." (See article above.) "Perhaps not many of us would have been of service to you," said General Booth says as to the relative evil of the war compared with the evils of the drink traffic, or prostitution, or commercial oppression. "I have said it, and we have given it due consideration, the majority of us would conclude that it is quite within the margin of error to say that more of us would have preferred songs which would have given us something to think about on our way up to the front."

War is an evil to be got rid of. It is the greatest evil of our age. It is the most terrible thing that has ever happened to the world. It is the most terrible thing that has ever happened to the world. It is the most terrible thing that has ever happened to the world. It is the most terrible thing that has ever happened to the world.

The war has quickened our moral vision. It has quickened our moral vision. It has quickened our moral vision. It has quickened our moral vision. It has quickened our moral vision. It has quickened our moral vision.

The men assisted in blessing each other by song and prayer conducted by the Deputy Bandmaster.

The whole camp were engaged in a song. They were engaged in a song. They were engaged in a song. They were engaged in a song. They were engaged in a song. They were engaged in a song.

What followed we leave the reader to guess, but the victory was won. The Deputy Bandmaster had gained the respect of the men—the first step towards capturing them. The Deputy Bandmaster had gained the respect of the men—the first step towards capturing them. The Deputy Bandmaster had gained the respect of the men—the first step towards capturing them.

man suppose that comic songs are better for courage than a palm of a hymn? Are not many of these songs a national disgrace for us? Don't they make us feel that in our national life for a grander and a greater spirit? How shall we win the war if we go into it with comic song in our souls?"

BUSY TIME AT FOLKESTONE

That our Chaplains are doing a much-needed work amongst the military boys there can be no doubt. The following letters will give our readers some insight into the nature and extent of this work. From Folkestone (England) Assistant Pentold writes as follows:—

"We have had a most busy time here the past two weeks, with so many of the troops having moved over to France, and so many new reinforcements arriving. I have already found a good number of Salvationists among the new arrivals, and am trying to link them all up as they arrive."

We had a visit last week from Brigadier Tom Plant, the Ardennes general, who has travelled around the world, giving musical demonstrations. His visit was much enjoyed by us. He gave his musical service in the camp. It was well filled, about seven hundred men being present. At the service was given in our own Regent, and the camp was packed, about seven hundred men being present. At the service was given in our own Regent, and the camp was packed, about seven hundred men being present.

"We have also had a visit from Brigadier Greenwood, who has recently been appointed. Along with his great musical genius, he has taken over the work that Brigadier Miller has been responsible for. The Brigadier took the services on March 28th Sunday morning and evening."

In the morning he gave us his experience in looking after the Soldiers' Mess, and the camp was packed, about seven hundred men being present. At the service was given in our own Regent, and the camp was packed, about seven hundred men being present.

I was quite surprised yesterday afternoon to meet Captain Roe. The last time I heard of him was, visiting his home in Ireland, and he was away here. He just arrived a few days ago, and has been drafted to Rishborough Barracks at Shorncliffe for light duty."

The Readers of "The War Cry" will be pleased to know that he is making good progress, and while he is still a little lame he has hopes ultimately of gaining the full use of his limbs. He has been very terrible work he has received and the subsequent sequent poisoning, his recovery is nothing short of marvellous. He desires to be remembered to all the comrades and friends."

From Niagara Camp, Captain Kimmons reports as follows:—

"We had a very good day on Sunday, Oct. 3rd. Thirty-three men in khaki took part in an open-air meeting lasting an hour."

OPEN-AIR WORK AT NIAGARA

"While we were standing in the open-air I had a man come up to me in a very broken-hearted condition. He wanted to speak to me, and I very readily asked him to come to my tent, which he promised to do. That is where we left it for the time being, and I went off to my tent. The man who had a very nice time with the men there. In the morning I had a service in the hospital with the men who were in the hospital. They were very attentive, and they are very glad to see me."

THE CANADIAN ROOFS

The Work Our Chaplains Are Doing Amongst the Boys in Khaki The Wounded Soldier's Story

In the House of Lords recently the question of allowing Canadian Salvation Army Chaplains to go to the front with the troops was brought up, and, after a long and interesting debate, it was decided that the Army Council saw no reason why the necessary permission be withheld.

service I happened to see a man who had been standing round the open-air. He was a backslider, and had been so for sixteen months. When I got to him, he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began to talk to him about his soul, and he said that he wanted to get right. I was anxious to take the address at the Y. M. C. A. Tent, so I asked him to give his name to God there; but I added, 'If you wish we will get right, and I will be with you in the tent, and there I was able to point him back to his once-forsaken Saviour, and there found that he had returned to the fold of the Father's love because the wanderer had returned. There and then I told him to take his stand in the tent, which he would do. I was the first one that I pointed to God on Sunday, and now we come to the one I was speaking of at the beginning. This man was heart-broken, and he said that he could not believe that it could be The Army opened until he made inquiries. Then, as I said, he came to me, and he said, 'I want to go to the front with him, and he told me that he was not happy or satisfied. I began

Gazette

Proclamation:
—Assign Harold Hurd, of Halifax 11, to be Adjutant.
—Lieutenant Harry Hinton, of New London, to be Captain.
W. J. RICHARDS,
Commissioner.

WAR CRY

Head for The Salvation Army in Canada, New England, Ontario, and the West, by The Army Training House, 18 Abbot St., Toronto

The Annual Congress

WHAT SHALL WE DO WITH IT?

At the time of writing the majority of the Officers of Canada East and West in Council at Toronto; the Office of Newfoundland and the Eastern Provinces have already experienced the reviving and inspiring address and atmosphere of the Councils conducted by Commissioner Richards. In the course of a short time the Councils of the Canada West Territory will be conducted by Commissioner Sorensen.

What shall we do with these precious reasons and privileges. If we are thoroughly alive to our privileges and responsibilities as Salvation Army Officers and Ambassadors of Christ we shall by ourselves not to make the very most of our gatherings by taking heed to the words of counsel—the outcome of rich and ripe experience that will come from the lips of our leaders and see ourselves unreservedly on the side of reformation, that we may be equipped with power from above to make us divinely fit for the greater service of saving souls that God has entrusted to us.

These are days of searchings of heart and remembering God. Elsewhere "The General, in his courageous, outspoken way, has laid the blame of this cruel war upon man's belief of God, and he cries out for a great soul-saving campaign to bring men and women in penitence to their Maker. While others are doing their bit for King and country let us as Officers lay ourselves out in these Councils to attain to greater power and efficiency through our life for God and humanity. And let all our Soldiers and readers, who desire to see the Kingdom of God extended, pray that the Spirit of God may be poured out upon the Territorial Leaders who shall assemble in Council at the annual centres of Canada East and West.

Changes of appointments in East Ontario are as follows: Adjutant and Mrs. Wiseman, Cobourg; Adjutant O'Neill and Lieutenant Edwards, Sherbrooke; Ensign Bailey and Lieutenant Rose, Hastings; Smith's Falls; Captain and Mrs. Parsons, Verdun; Captain Leader and Lieutenant Rose, St. Catharines; Captain Trimm, Napanee; Captain May Johnston and Lieutenant Thornton, Perth; Captain and Mrs. Hetherington, Port Hope; Captain Holmgren and Lieutenant Edwards, Quebec; Captain Douglas and Lieutenant Smith, Brockville; Lieutenant Kitt, Tweed.

Captain Lloyd and Lieutenant Harrison are transferred from the Hamilton Division to the Canada West Division, and take charge of

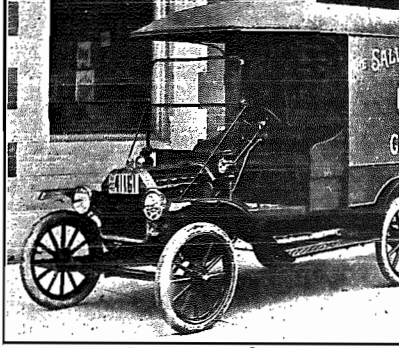

THE 33rd Annual Congress

HAS A BRILLIANT BEGINNING

THE COMMISSIONER Receives Great Ovation, and Mrs. Otway and Brigadier and Mrs. Bell have Hearty Reception

THE Thirty-third Annual Congress at Toronto opened auspiciously on Tuesday, Oct. 12th, with a welcome gathering at the Temple, some five hundred Officers and Cadets being present. Praise and prayer marked the commencement of this first meeting of the Congress. Colonel Jacobs then the assembly to sing in a fervent petition that the Spirit might be outpoured, after which the Officers joined in singing "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow" to our spheres of labour in a state of greater fighting efficiency. "Never a Brigadier Ashly would be called on to speak representing the various bodies of Officers present. Adjutant Layman spoke on behalf of the Men Field Officers; Mrs. Adjutant Kendall on behalf of the Women Field Officers, and Brigadier Sorensen on behalf of the Divisional Officers.

The latter touched a tender chord when he said that perhaps we would feel the invisible presence of com-

One of the Five Motor Ambulances that are to be given by Salvationists of Canada East to The General for service at the Front

"We have more to be thankful for than we can think of," said the Chief Secretary in his introductory remarks. He then briefly recounted some of the Lord's mercies to us as an Army, and pointed to the growth of the Congress gatherings year after year as tangible evidence of the progress of our work in the Territories. Notwithstanding the irreparable losses of the past year, the present gathering of Ontario Officers is the biggest in Canada's history, and it is safe to say that during the last twenty years our forces have more than doubled. Such a record of rapid growth by such Organizations can point to.

Representative speakers, in the persons of Lieut-Colonels Chandler and Bond, were called on to extend a welcome to the visiting Delegates. They did so in their usual eloquent and forcible manner, expressing their conviction that the Congress would be fully up to the expectations of all.

"How shall we make the most of it?" asked Colonel Bond. And he urged all to "draw near to God with plastic hearts and tender hearts, let Him have all His own way with us. Then He will send us all back

PERSONALIA TERRITORIAL

CANADA EAST

The Commissioner delivered his first lecture to the new Cadets last Thursday morning. They number eighty in all, and appear to be bright, intelligent lot of young men and women, who followed the Commissioner's timely and eloquent talk with undiluted interest.

The Commissioner has appointed Major Arnold to take charge of demonstrations and special efforts, under the Chief Secretary.

Lieut-Colonel and Mrs. Otway arrived safely at Montreal on the Metacomb on Monday, Oct. 11th, and were welcomed at Toronto Headquarters the following day. Portrait and biographical sketches will appear next week.

Mrs. Brigadier Morris has received news that her only brother has been wounded in the recent fighting in France. He was in the 26th Battalion of the Second Coningent.

When the Commissioner was at Halifax he promoted Ensign Hurd to the rank of Adjutant. Congratulations!

The Khaki Band from the Niagara Camp will arrive at the Yonge Street Wharf, Toronto, at one o'clock on Saturday. As many Salvationists as possible should be on hand to greet them.

The five Motor Ambulances will be driven in the Monster March by Salvationists. They are: Messrs. Roberts, McIntyre, Sorensen and two brothers Brien.

A Tag Day is to be held throughout the Halifax Division to help defray the cost of a Motor Ambulance.

The wedding of Captain Robert Little, of the Toronto Men's Society, and Adjutant Hattie Scott, last mentioned, will be held at Balmoral Lodge (Winnipeg), will be conducted by Colonel Jacobs at the Industrial Corps (Toronto), on Thursday, Oct. 28th.

Several Officers are being transferred from the Toronto to the Hamilton Division. These include Adjutant and Mrs. Osborn, who take charge of Brantford; Captain and Mrs. Hancock, Hamilton 11; and Capt. Cummings, Guelph.

Adjutant and Mrs. Parsons are transferred from the St. John to the Toronto Division, and will take charge of Weymouth.

Ensign and Mrs. Banton are transferred from the Hamilton to the Toronto Division, and will take charge of Dovercourt.

The changes within the Toronto Division are as follows: Adjutant and Mrs. Ritchie, Toronto 1; Ensign and Mrs. Hale, Oshawa; Captain and Mrs. Mott, Lindsay; Captain and Mrs. Leech, Ligar Street; Captain Curry, Sault Ste. Marie; Lieutenant and Mrs. Cockney, Brampton; Lieutenant Austin, Haliburton; Lieutenant Greg is appointed to assist Captain Johnson at Parry Sound.

Ensign and Mrs. Tutte are transferred ferred from the London Division to the Halifax Division, and will take charge of Halifax 1.

Ensign and Mrs. Turner, who have had a very successful stay at Halifax 1, are taking a furlough; the state of the Ensign's health, we regret to learn, rendering this very necessary.

Changes in the London Division are as follows: Adjutant and Mrs. Woodstock, Ont.; Adjutant Gamble, Clinton; Captain Webster, Toronto; Ensign and Mrs. Martin and Lieutenant Chambers, St. Mary's; Captain and Mrs. Parker, Wallaceburg; Lieutenant and Mrs. Dressed Secord.

Ensign and Mrs. Louis Smith are appointed to Strathroy; the state of Mrs. Smith's health, we are glad to state, being much improved.

Ensign and Mrs. Spearing are appointed to Sydney, N.S.; Captain and Mrs. Fullerton to Woodstock, N.B.; Captain Bolton and Lieutenant Waterloo, St. Stephen, N.B.; Captain and Mrs. Hinton, Divisional Headquarters, and Captain Cook, Bracebridge; Ensign Wales and Lieutenant Froude, Toronto; Ensign and Mrs. Clark, Barrie; Captain and Mrs. Rogers, Dunnville; Captain Cosway and Lieutenant Forbes, Haliburton; Captain Walcott, Lieutenant Hill, Huntsville; Captain Hinton and Lieutenant Dolson, New Liskeard; Captain Curtis, Respector.

Captain Alf. Keith has undertaken to be swimming instructor to the Toronto Life-Saving Scouts.

After the Congress lists of all books carried by the Trade Department will be sent out to all Field Officers.

CANADA WEST

Plans are now practically completed in connection with our Anniversary Gathering in the West. In connection with this year's gatherings, the Commissioner has decided to divide up the territory in three sections, at Winnipeg, Vancouver, and Calgary; the latter will take place in the early part of the new year, and will be especially in the interests of the Officers in the Alberta Division.

The following programme has been planned for both the Winnipeg and Vancouver Congress, and from the preliminary arrangements, it looks as though we are about to have some extraordinary times in connection with these gatherings.

The Commissioner, and all the Territorial Headquarters Staff, are very busy with the arrangements connected with this Congress at the present time.

Brigadier and Mrs. Taylor and Major and Mrs. Coombs will be welcomed to the West during our Anniversary Congress at Winnipeg. The inaugural meetings for Brigadier and Mrs. Taylor will take place here on the 27th; while Major and Mrs. Coombs will be only installed at Regina on Friday, Nov. 4th. The Commissioner will do the installation in both instances.

In connection with this Congress we are welcoming Adjutant and Mrs. Holmstrom and their family to the West. They are being appointed to Regina, where, no doubt, a warm Western welcome will greet them.

Adjutant and Mrs. James go from Regina to Vancouver to Ensign and Mrs. Wright, move on from Vancouver 1 to Edmonton. Other appointments in connection with the change of the commanding Officers will be given in due course. The Commissioner has just had a very successful gathering with the Winnipeg Officers, followed by a united meeting with the Soldiers in the city. Both these gatherings were times of very great

Notes on the Congress Meetings

The Trade Department is in good shape for the transaction of a record lot of business during the Congress. For some time past the sound of the hammer and the saw has been heard around Headquarters as the carpenters transformed the old Immigration Offices into an up-to-date shop. A day or two before the Congress the painters got busy, and then the floor was nicely covered with linoleum, and some counters and glass showcases were put in. All the shelves and cupboards are now heavily stocked with goods handled by the Trade Department, and Majors Crichton and McMillan are ready for the big drive.

Is much business done during the Congress? Well, we should say so. During the last Toronto Congress over four thousand dollars' worth of goods and books were sold. It is expected that a still greater volume of business will be done this year. There are some special bargains during Congress week. Don't fail to inspect the fine library of five thousand and beautiful bound volumes for boys and girls. Just the thing for Sunday School prizes. They are going at forty-nine cents each.

Then, there are five hundred first-class Bibles to be offered at a special price, or you can get a Bible and Song Book in a neat leather case for a very reasonable figure. Ask about this.

There is a plentiful supply of caps, hats, jerseys, and dress goods, but, unfortunately, the bonnets which were ordered, have failed to arrive. You can place your order, however. A very attractive and interesting career of the Trade Department during the Congress will be the "Christmas 'War Cry' exhibit. The original paintings from which the principal pictures have been made, will be on view, and the various stages of development in three-colour printing will be shown. Don't fail to have a look at this.

The Life-Saving Scouts are going to do a real good thing at the Young People's Demonstration on Monday night. In addition to features already mentioned, they will give examples of how Scouts can do good work, on the street, in the Corps, and at home. A special Scouts' song has been composed by Captain Keith which the boys will sing. Exhibitions of signalling, camp life scenes, and stretcher drill and stave drill are also part of the programme. An illustrated recitation, entitled "Play up and Play the Game" by Scout Carl Richards, promises to be an interesting item. A game of cricket and a war scene, we understand, will be two of the tableaux.

At the last moment there has been a disappointment over getting the Memorial Stone for our comrades who perished in the Empress of Ireland. The unveiling ceremony announced to take place at Mount Pleasant Cemetery on Saturday afternoon, therefore, is cancelled.

The Mayor of Montreal will take place, however. Majors Jennings and Crichton are acting as Marshals of the procession, each having charge of a section. There will be at least four hundred Officers and a similar number of Bandmen, including a Massed Band of Military Salvationists in khaki. The five Motor Ambulances will be a great attraction. As many Soldiers as possibly can should be present to take their places in this march. Assemble at the Temple at 6.30 p.m.

The programme of the Musical Festival on Saturday night is before us, and a rich treat for all lovers of music is in store. The Band selections include the following items: "Echoes of the Congress," Riverdale; "The 'War Cry' Temple," "Vocal Melodies," Ligar; "Rejoicing in the Lord," Hamilton 1; "Bearing the Cross," Dovercourt.

The Songster Brigades will render the following selections: "The Gospel Ship," Hamilton 1; "Showers of Blessings," Riverdale; "Praise, Praise," Ligar; "Sweetest Name," Yorkville; "Always Rejoicing," Chester; "World-Wide," Crimston; "The 'War Cry' Temple," "Vocal Melodies," Ligar; "Rejoicing in the Lord," Hamilton 1; "Bearing the Cross," Dovercourt. The Songster Brigades will also sing: "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall" and the Male Choir will sing "The Old Charter." The Orchestra is down for all their best selections. The Khaki Band will also render a selection, though just what it is we cannot yet announce. The whole promises to be one of the "best yet" in the way of Musical Festivals.

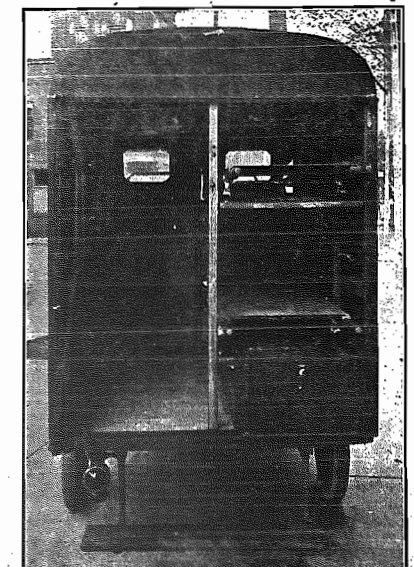

The Memorial Service on Sunday afternoon will be a solemn and touching service, when we will remember our comrades promoted to Glory during the past three years. Lighted views of those who went down on the Empress of Ireland and who have laid down their lives for the Empire on Europe's battlefields will be given due prominence.

The Young People's Bands are shaping up well for their part in the Great March and the Young People's Demonstration. West Toronto, the Temple, and Dovercourt are the Corps furnishing the Bands.

The Massey Hall will be suitably and tastefully decorated for the meetings. One of the features will be a big, illuminated Army Flag.

An alteration which Staff Officers should notice is that the Staff Council will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 27th, now, and not on Tuesday and Wednesday as previously was announced.

At the Presentation of Social Work on Tuesday night, for the interesting pictures, showing The Army's Work amongst prisoners will be thrown on the screen. Particulars relating to Relief Work, Labour Bureaus, Enquiry Work, League of Mercy, and Hospital Work, will also be given by means of the screen. The concluding tableau will include the Women's Social Officers in house uniform and a group of about seventy League of Mercy Workers. The five Motor Ambulances will also be dedicated by the Commissioner at this meeting—the profile of which will go towards their cost.

A Rear View, showing the interior of a Motor Ambulance

(Concluded on Page 11)

NEWS NOTES and COMMENTS

PROMOTED TO GLORY

Three Saskatoon Promotions

The body of Sister Kirby's father was laid to rest in Kirby's Sept. 1918. Although for some time her brother was unable to utter a word, yet he was blessed and helped by the visit of the Adjutant and other comrades. Just before he was stricken down he gave a definite testimony that all was well, and that if God called him, suddenly he was ready to meet Him. A good number attended the funeral service at the Hall, and also followed to the cemetery.

Brother Waterer's little one, after a wasting illness, passed away, and was also buried the same day by the Adjutant.

Death has also taken away an old Soldier of the Corps, who was well known and highly respected—Brother Bailey. Our comrades were Sergeant-Major of the Corps for some time and a great worker for God. During the last few months he has been living in Edmonton, from whence God has called him home.

Sister Mrs. T. Marshall, Carbonara

On Aug. 30th, died visited our Corps, and took from our ranks Sister T. Marshall. For some time our sister had been laid aside by sickness, but was always cheerful, realizing that her spiritual sky was clear.

She was a Soldier for a number of years, and when able to attend the meetings always gave her testimony to God's saving and keeping power. We said that she has laid down the cross for a crown.

The funeral service was conducted on the Thursday by Captain Lodge. Our comrades were present a real Army funeral. On the following Sunday night a memorial service was conducted, and while the testimony meeting was in progress, Sister Marshall's son came forward and gave himself to God. We extend our deepest sympathy to the husband, son, and daughter, who are left to mourn their loss—Mrs. Bridle.

Bro. E. Andrews, Winterton, Nfld.

Our ranks have again been broken and one of our Soldiers, in the person of Brother E. Andrews, Nfld., has been called away. Our comrade suffered quite a lot during the past two months, but when the end came he was well. His favourite chorus was "My Jesus Will Carry Me Over." He was an active worker in the Junior for a number of years, and showed a great interest in them.

At the memorial service, which was conducted by Ensign and Mrs. Woodland on Sunday, Sept. 22nd, many paid tributes to the life of our departed comrade. He leaves behind wife, two daughters, and three sons, who have our prayers and sympathy.

Safely at home, beautiful home, in a country where sin, pain, and death are unknown.

Our sweet one, who has come from you bright, golden strand, is waiting our coming to join that band.

—J. D.

William Clough, Vancouver, B.C.

Brother Clough, who, for a number of years, has been a Salvationist here in Vancouver, British Columbia, passed away on Wednesday, Sept. 1st. Not being able to get work here, he had come to the C.P.R. near Medicine Hat, Alberta. After working for about two weeks his was stricken with a violent illness. He died in the Medicine Hat General Hospital four days later. The remains were brought here and

Harvest Festival Display at Newmarket, with Captain Pocock and some of the comrades buried in the Mountain View Cemetery

The funeral service was conducted by Adjutant Meikle, Captain Carstairs, and Lieutenant Brown. We extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Clough and the two boys who are left to mourn their loss.

Sister Mrs. Fishleigh, Bowmanville

Another of our faithful comrades has gone to her reward in the person of Sister Mrs. Fishleigh of the Bowmanville Corps. Our comrade passed away peacefully on the 15th of September, in her fifty-eight years. She had been a faithful Soldier of this Corps for the last twenty-eight years. Our sister was one of those who are always at the battle's front. About a year ago she took sick, and up to the last had a high temperature. When Captain Pollock visited her she said, "Tell the comrades I am getting well, but nearer Home." She went to go at last, because she knew she was going to swell that number that John said, who have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb. The end came very suddenly and peacefully.

The funeral service, conducted at the home of Brother and Sister H. Fletcher, was led by Major McAmmond who knew our comrade when he was stationed here twenty years ago. Sister Mrs. Nokes spoke of our comrade's faithful life, and Rev. Mr. Tomlin spoke of her when she was a girl at school. She always tried to do right and live for Jesus. Captain Pollock closed. "We'll never say Good-bye in Heaven," Major McAmmond read from God's Word.

Brother Kennedy

Corps, but we are comforted in knowing she is with Jesus, which is far better.

Sister Hutchings, Bonne Bay

Death has recently visited this Corps and taken from us Sister Hutchings. Our late sister was converted in an Army meeting about twelve months ago, and since then has fought a good fight. During her illness she maintained a perfect trust in God, and never once was known to murmur or complain. Just before her death she sweetly sang "Jesus Loves Me This I Know." The funeral took place on Monday, Sept. 20th, and was largely attended. The service at the graveside was very impressive, and the memorial services four souls surrendered. To the sorrowing mother, brothers, and sisters, the sympathy of the entire Corps is extended.

Brother Walter Joyce, Wallaceburg

The death of our late comrade, who died at his home in Wallaceburg, Ontario, on Sunday, Sept. 15th, at about six o'clock. The Corps Officers, Captain Martin and which brought comfort and solace to the bereaved.

The procession was headed by the Band, who were assisted by Captain Laxton. The Band played "Shall We Gather at the River," "Hiding in Thee," and other pieces, which were well received. The service at the graveside was short, but an earnest appeal was made by Major McAmmond to all to be ready when the call comes.

The memorial service was conducted by Captain Pollock, who spoke of the Homeland very effectively. The Band played "Promoted to Glory," and four of the Bandsmen sang about the "Beautiful City."

Our comrade will be missed in the Lieutenant Chambers, were at his bedside at about half-past three that morning, just about two or three hours before he passed away. He died peacefully, and left behind a testimony that he was ready and waiting to go home to Heaven.

For two years this brother has been suffering with cancer. He was converted on Sunday, April 18th, of this year, in his sick bed. While the Adjutant was holding a Sunday afternoon open-air outside the house, Captain Martin and a comrade had the privilege of attending to the brother's soul. Although not an actual Salvationist—a member of the local Methodist Church—he knew the Salvationist's God, and enjoyed the same experience as a true Salvationist. He loved The Army, and regularly looked forward to the Officer's visits.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. J. C. Reid (the Melville Presbyterian Minister). A large number of the local Corps. A number of Salvationists were present at the funeral. An impressive service was held at the house, attended by a large number of relatives and sympathizing friends. Our brother was laid to rest in the Wallaceburg Cemetery. The prayers and sympathies of Salvationists are heartily extended to Mrs. Joyce and the sorrowing family, relatives, and friends.

Bro. Kennedy, Woodstock (N.B.)

Brother Robert Kennedy was promoted to Glory on Sept. 20th at the age of sixty. Heart failure was the cause of his death. He came in from work at night, and lay down to rest, and passed away a few minutes later.

Brother Kennedy was saved nine years ago. Previous to his conversion he was a great drunkard. He was a member of the Baptist Church and a great worker in the Salvation Army meetings, doing all he could to get others saved. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved wife and family.

Sister Mrs. Horne, Barrie

Death has visited the Barrie Corps, and taken from us Sister Mrs. Horne. Her promotion to Glory came somewhat as a surprise. Sister Horne has been in ill-health for some months, but she always had a brave heart and a cheerful spirit, and while she worked with patience both at night and day. For weeks they travelled company in the troop trains, conversing with the men under every possible circumstance, providing them with refreshments, and writing letters for them, and wherever permissible, hiding medicines among them.

"They made their Headquarters at the French base, and work that had hitherto been of necessity hazardous became regular and organized service."

LAST SAD SERVICES

"REST houses for the troops, similar to those in England, where, with her husband, a woman Officer ministered to the troops, were established, and a dozen women Officers were set apart for the visitation of the large hospitals, convalescent homes, and prisoners' camps at the French base."

EIGHT CAME FORWARD

New Officers at Wesleyville Corps. Our new Officers, Adjutant and Mrs. Grandy, have been welcomed to Wesleyville. On Sunday, Sept. 15th, during the "Stationary" meeting, eight sinners came forward and claimed pardon.

WOMEN'S WORK IN WAR

"The stirring narrative of 'Women's Work in the War,' which occupies two parts of 'The Times' history, the writer says: 'Salvationist women as a group formed a most useful link between the war zone and the home during the war. When Lord Kitchener's Army was being recruited, one of the first services which engaged General and Mrs. Booth's attention was the provision of Rest-Houses and Recreation Rooms for the troops. In the case of Rest-Houses, General Booth decided that, wherever possible, the Officer-in-charge should be a married man. The wife of every Salvationist Officer is herself an Officer, having been trained and seen considerable service before her marriage. The presence of good, cheerful, capable women amongst the military camps had an excellent influence."

A RED CROSS HEROINE

"The correspondent of the 'Algemeen Handelsblad,' in a letter 'From the English Front,' tells the following story of an English nurse: 'Far from the trenches I was walking about a sunken road, when, rounding a curve, I suddenly saw a bent figure slowly moving forward. I hurried up and saw a girl of not more than twenty-three years of age carrying on her shoulder a young English soldier. The young man had been shot through the shoulder, and after a preliminary dressing of the wound, he had been sold to go to the nearest field hospital. He had lost his way, and had wandered on until, from loss of blood and fatigue, he had fallen. 'In this state the young woman—it was an English nurse—accident-

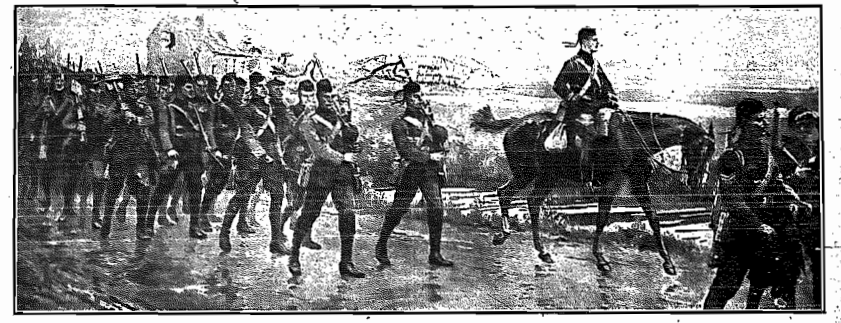

RETURNED WITH INTEREST

"A publication called 'The Horse and Hound,' contains the following item:— 'A horse, the property of a Chicago man, which was recently stolen, after the lapse of a few days, turned up at his proper home, drawing a spick-and-span wagon and proudly wearing a brand-new harness. Inquiries by the owner of the horse for the proper owner of the wagon and harness have evoked no response, which, upon reflection, is not so inexplicable. 'When did a stolen automobile ever come home with a new motor or a new set of tires? What stolen automobile has flown back to its owner's garage with a new set of wheels? Of course, not all horses accomplish this feat of coming back with the spoils. Most of them lose opportunity by not being stolen. Also, a majority of the stolen ones are driven-twenty-five years ago. 'Howitzer' is derived from the French 'houvite,' a wooden apparatus used in ancient times for the purpose of throwing stones. We meet the word in the Hussite war in the fifteenth century, where the weapon figures as 'halfhuizt.' The Officer's name of major was derived originally from the Spanish word 'mayor,' signifying great or high.

HEN MOTHERS KITTENS

"We have heard of hens doing all sorts of strange things, but the following story from Canton, Ohio, just attested by a photo in 'Our Dumb Animals,' is the latest:— 'Mrs. Mary Glover has a Buff Plymouth Rock hen that is acting the part of mother to five kittens, about six weeks old. 'The hen had been setting perhaps ten days, when she left her nest

In Northern France: Playing in a Scottish Regiment from the Trenches to their Billets ally found him. As it was at least half-an-hour's walk to the nearest field hospital, she decided to carry him there. The brave girl accepted my assistance, and we utilized my overcoat as a stretcher, and thus carried our wounded man to the hospital."

DOGS' HOME AT BOULOGNE

"STANDING on the cliffs above Boulogne, France, there is a building known as 'The Dogs' Home,' where, since the war has been in progress, many pets of officers and privates and refugees have been quartered. A contributor to the 'Animal World' writes as follows: regarding this institution and its inmates, which war has deprived of owner and master:— 'To this home any soldier ordered to the front, or unable to keep his pet any longer with him, can send it to be housed and fed till arrangements can be made for its return to its owner in England. 'In one corner of the yard is a kitchen where soup of meat and vegetables is made, that the dogs may be fed. The kennels are lined with straw, and the kennels are run down the centre, each kennel containing a wooden enclosure and a wooden shelter, into which the dog can creep into the shade and out of sight."

en at top speed to a neighbouring house and there 'swapped' for another personal property that is obtainable. Up to the present we have not heard of any motor car manufacturer claiming this kind of efficiency for his product."

ORIGIN OF WAR WORDS

"IT is curious, and, in some respects, perhaps, a significant fact, that with the exception of shrapnel, named after its inventor, an English colonel, there are very few terms now in use which have not a foreign origin."

"Grenadier" is generally supposed to come from the French. The word is, however, of German birth, and originally was granier, a force of the name to the hand grenades with which they were armed."

"Hussar" comes from the Hungarian words "hust," which means "twenty." The force derived its name from the fact that for every twentieth recruit in Hungary was placed in one of the mounted regiments."

The wallans owe their name to the Turks. It comes from the Turkish word "oghlan," youth.

"Pistol" comes from the Polish word "szabla," and "pistol" from the Italian town Pistoia, which was famous in the Middle Ages for its arms factories.

The bayonet takes its name from the French town Bayonne, where its inventor lived. Some believe that it was named after him.

to feed, and while stroting about the barn she discovered the kitten whose nest was in a tub, and proceeded to adopt the litter and pre-empted their home. She will fight for the kittens and seems very much attached to them."

"Mrs. Glover has attempted to persuade the hen to go back to her nest of eggs, in fact, she has taken her back several times, but the hen apparently prefers the company of the kittens and immediately returns to them."

HOW THEY GET THERE

"A COMMON colloquialism of more than ordinary expressiveness describes the defeated in the 'down-and-out.' These abound in the congested portions of the city. They are to be seen in the public parks, doze in rescue missions, huddle around the radiators in cheap lodging houses or stand at the door of the liquor saloons. Some of their stories are romantic and tragic beyond novelist's telling. Emma C. Davis gives strange instances, but to one way in which their ranks are recruited:—

A man devoted once kept a store, And, not contented, he wanted more. So he deserted and schemed, and was planned so well,

That his neighbour merchant was forced to sell. And he sought, and flourished, and became a new inmate.

The other? I never heard what became. 'O'er the barren waste, he swam."

ARMY SONGS

COMING THIS WAY

Composed by Colour-Sergeant C. McGee, 60th Canadian Rifles, Moose Jaw.

Tune—"Looking This Way."
Trusting in Jesus our hearts know
no fear,
We are His loved ones, under His care;

He never slumbers, is "With us always";
A mighty revival is coming this way.

Chorus

Coming this way, yes, coming this way,
A mighty revival is coming this way.
Keep on believing, trust and obey.
A mighty revival is coming this way.

He helps us onward when dangers are deep,
Searching in mountain or glen for
His sheep;
We'll seek the lost ones, gone far astray,
A mighty revival is coming this way.

Tried in the furnace, put under the rod,
Fitted for service, pruned by our God;
Shrink not the trial, pray, comrades,
pray!
A mighty revival is coming this way.

Fighting for Jesus, advance without fear,
Sorrow and weakness our Leader
doth share;
Trials and heartaches will soon pass away,
A mighty revival is coming this way.

Filled with the Spirit, walking in love,
By faith we see Him watching above;
Doubt him, No, never! We'll trust and obey.
A mighty revival is coming this way.

PRECIOUS NAME!

Take the name of Jesus with you,
Chief of sorrow and of woe—
It will joy and comfort give you.
Take it, then, wherever you go.

Chorus

Precious Name, oh, how sweet!
Hope of earth and joy of Heaven!

Take the name of Jesus ever.
As a shield from every snare;
If temptations round you gather,
Breathe that holy name in prayer.

At the name of Jesus bowing,
Falling prostrate at His feet,
King of kings in Heaven we'll crown Him,
And win the journey is complete.

SEND THE POWER!

Tunes—Rockingham, 15; Silver
Hill, H.P.; Wareham, 20; Song Book, 484.

Lord, we believe to us and ours Thy precious promises were given;

We wait the Pentecostal powers,
The Holy Ghost sent down from Heaven.

Assembled here with one and all,
Calmly we wait for the promised grace,

The purchase of our dying Lord:
Come, Holy Ghost, and fill the place!

If every one of us may find,
If still Thou dost on Soldiers fall,
Come as a mighty rushing wind,
Great grace be now upon us all.

NONE OF SELF

Tune—None of self, 149

Oh, the bitter shame and sorrow
That a time could ever be
When I let the Saviour's pity Plead in vain, and proudly answered:
"All of self, and none of Thee!"

Yet He found me; I beheld Him
Bleeding on the cursed tree,
Hear Him pray, "Forgive them, Father!"
And my wistful heart said faintly:
"Some of self, and some of Thee!"

Day by day, His tender mercy,
Healing, helpful, full and free;
Sweet and strong, and, ah! so patient,
Brought me lower, while I whispered:
"Less of self, and more of Thee!"

Higher than the highest heavens,
Deeper than the deepest sea,
Lord, Thy love at last has conquered:
Grant us now my spirit's longing—
"None of self, and all of Thee!"

WE NEVER WILL GIVE IN

Tune—God is keeping His Soldiers, 233.

God is keeping His Soldiers fighting,
Evermore we shall conquerors be,
All the hosts of hell are uniting,
But we're sure to have victory.
Though to beat us they've been trying.

Our colours still are flying,
And our Flag shall wave forever,
For we never will give in.

With Salvation for every nation,
To the ends of the earth we will go.

With a free and full Salvation,
All the power of the Cross we'll show.

We'll tear hell's throne to pieces,
And win the world for Jesus;
We'll be conquerors forever,
For we never will give in.

STORM THE FORTS!

Tune—Storm the forts, 273
Soldiers of our God, arise!
The day is drawing nearer:
Slake the slumber from your eyes,
The light is growing clearer.

Sit no longer idly by,
While the heedless millions die,
Lift the blood-stained banner high,
And take the field for Jesus.

Chorus

Storm the forts of darkness, e. e.

Warriors of the bleeding Lamb
Army of Salvation.

Spread the fame of Gilead's balm,
Conquer every nation;
Raise the glorious standard higher,
Strike for victory—never tire;
Forward march with Blood and Fire,
And win the world for Jesus.

HE LIFTED ME

In loving kindness Jesus came
My soul in mercy to reclaim,
And from the depths of sin and shame
Through grace He lifted me.

Chorus

From sinking sands He lifted me!

Now on a higher plain I dwell,
And with my soul I know 'tis well;
Yet how or why I cannot tell,
He should have lifted me.

Take up your task with willing hand, be something, somewhere, now.
Let us be content to do little if God sets us at little tasks.
Ask God for forgiveness; for God is ready to forgive and merciful.

SYSTEMATIC GIVING

A Widow's Grateful Tribute

Over four years ago God decidedly spoke to my dear husband and me about giving the tenth of our earnings to Him. One day particularly I felt the Lord wanted us to give that amount, and, as my husband was always pretty free at giving, I did not like to speak to him on the matter, so I just asked the Lord if it was His will for us to give that amount, to deal with my husband himself on the subject.

On this particular day, as we were eating in from the country, and while he was having his lunch,
and the horses having theirs also,
the Lord spoke to him, but he argued with the Spirit, saying he would give five per cent, thinking he could not really afford the tenth.
In the evening he related his experience to me, and, in turn, I told him mine. At once he decided that it would be the tenth instead of five per cent.

When he went back to his usual work he got a rise of one shilling per day without asking, and also got a rise in other odd jobs that he used to go about the town.

Sometimes when a two or three months' check would come in, the devil would tempt him not to give the Lord His share, but he never went back from his vows. As a consequence, the Corps benefited greatly.

After the war started work was scarce for several months; then my dear husband took the fever and died, and I was left with six children, the eldest not fourteen and the youngest two weeks old. All things looked black; I could not see how to turn, but the Lord raised up dear friends to help me on every hand; many of them I had never met. Donations came in, benefits were raised, and although we have had a time without many things yet our needs have been well supplied.

Again the enemy came tempting, me not to give so much. I felt I could not go from our consecration, whatever the consequences might be, so that, out of all that was given to help us, I have been able, by the grace of God, to turn Him back two shillings in the pound.

This I write to the glory of God,
Who is able to do exceedingly and abundantly above all that we can ask or think. The Lord tells us to prove Him, and, bless Him! I have found the promise sure. Hallelujah!
—Australian "Cry."

A MYSTERY EXPLAINED

Most housewives know that sugar will dissolve far more quickly in hot water than in cold.
The reason for this was a mystery in the Middle Ages, and it is only since the modern knowledge of molecules that it could be explained.

Heat is nothing, more or less than the increased motion of the molecules which are revolving.
This is easily seen in molasses.
When very cold, it will hardly flow at all; when warmed it will pour slowly, but when boiling hot, it will pour in a thin syrup almost as liquid as milk. At the same time, boiling water is more liquid than cold water. As dissolving a piece of sugar means that the sugar enters into the tiny spaces between the molecules of the water, the more quickly they are moving,
the easier it is for the sugar to get in. For, it must be remembered, you can fill a glass to a certain level, and after that put in two, three, or even four lumps of sugar, and the glass will be no fuller than before.

COMING EVENTS

COMM. RICHARDS

Toronto.—Sat., Oct. 23rd. "Review
of Life-Saving Scouts and Guards."
St. Catharines.—Oct. 30-31.
Temple (Toronto).—Nov. 4. (Installation of Brigadier Adb.)
Bramford I.—Nov. 6-7.
Hamilton I.—Nov. 8. (Installation of Lieut.-Colonel Chandler.) London I.—Nov. 9. (Installation of Brigadier Rawling.)
Strathroy.—Nov. 10.
Petrolia.—Nov. 11.
Sarnia.—Nov. 12.
Windsor.—Nov. 13.
Ottawa II.—Nov. 20-21.
Ottawa III.—Nov. 22. (United Meeting.)
East Toronto.—Nov. 28.
Uxbridge.—Dec. 3.
Lindsay.—Dec. 4-5.
Fenelon Falls.—Dec. 6.
Orillia.—Dec. 11-12.
Midland.—Dec. 13.
Barrie.—Dec. 14.
Chesler (Toronto).—Dec. 19.
Temple (Toronto).—Dec. 25 (morning only).
Temple.—Dec. 30 (Watch-night).

COLONEL GASKIN

Toronto.—Sat., Oct. 23rd. "Review
of Life-Saving Scouts and Guards."
St. Catharines.—Oct. 30-31.
Temple (Toronto).—Nov. 4.
Windsor.—Nov. 13.
Montreal I.—Nov. 18. (Installation of Brigadier Morehen.)
Fredericton.—Nov. 20-21.
St. John I.—Nov. 22. (Installation of Major Barr.) Halifax I.—Nov. 23. (Installation of Major Crichton.)
Moncton.—Nov. 24.
St. John.—Nov. 25.
Kingston.—Nov. 27-28.
(Mrs. Gaskin will accompany)

LIET.-COL. BOND.—St. Catharines,
Oct. 30-31.

BRIG. MILLER.—St. Catharines,
Oct. 30-31.

MAJOR MCGILLIVRAY.—St. Catharines, Oct. 30-31.

Staff-Captain Vallance.—St. Catharines, Oct. 30-31.

WE ARE

Looking for You

We will search for missing persons in any part of the globe, Ireland and, as far as possible, send them home. Write to J. J. JACOBS, 40 Richmond Street West, Toronto, marked "Agency" on envelope.
Our Police and our friends with every care, and possibly, to help you express interest. In case of death of missing person, we will send you a copy of the report, and if possible, a photograph.
Officers, Soldiers, and Friends are requested to write us by letter, regularly through the Missing Persons Office, 40 Richmond Street West, Toronto, marked "Agency" on envelope. We will send you information concerning any case, always at no cost and number of cases.

TAYLOR, MISS JESSIE, 10734, alias
JESSIE McLAGAN, Canadian, born 14, Bright 15, 5 in. 140 lbs., dark complexion, black hair, blue eyes, missing since 25, January, 1912. Last known address—
Richmond Hotel, Hamilton, Ontario.
Rank: Last known employer, Mr. J. D.
Crawford, a lawyer, supposed to have come to Montreal, U.S.A. Husband missing.

CHRISTIAN E. O. HELMERS, alias CHRIST OLMEN, and CARL ALP. O.
HELMERS, alias CHARLES HELMERS, 10734, Brothers, missing since 25 and 30 respectively. Both supposed to be in the U.S.A. Last known address, Mann & Co. Montreal, Que., at the construction of a large bridge in Montreal.
Present whereabouts desired. Relatives desired.

STANLEY, MISS MAGGIE, nee HAD-DEN, 10732, 28 years of age, height about 5 ft., brown hair, blue eyes, fair complexion. Was seen near St. J.
University Ave., Toronto, Ont. No biting for about 2 years. Mother in England.

DICKINSON, MR. WILLIAM, alias JAMES J. WILLIAM, 3711, Age 37, labor; blue eyes; but must be one eye; wears glasses; height 5 ft. 4 in., and weight 150 lbs. Last known address, Left Aurora, Ont., about May 10, 1914. No biting. No relatives. He worked a short time. Wife anxious.